The Florida Bar Examination is a high-stakes, professional examination that requires a great deal of preparation and study. We recognize that it involves a considerable investment of your time and resources, and that your future endeavors hinge on your success in passing this important test.

The Florida Board of Bar Examiners has prepared this information to familiarize you with the bar examination process. It is our hope that it will help you prepare for examination day, and allow you to focus on studying so that you perform to the best of your ability.

February 2017 Examination Deadlines

1. Exam Ticket - required for everyone

File your application* timely by November 15. Thereafter, late fees accrue up until the January 15 cut-off date to apply for this examination (no exceptions and no time extensions).

2. Laptop Program - optional, by request

(a) Apply for and pay the $125 laptop fee timely by November 15, 2016. Take note of the January 15 cut-off date to apply for the laptop program (no exceptions and no time extensions). If your application is not complete in its entirety by January 15, including payment of all required fees, you will not be able to register your computer for the February 2017 examination.

(b) Register and qualify with ExamSoft from November 15 – February 1 (no exceptions, no time extensions, and no refund of the laptop fee).

3. Test Accommodations - available by petition

Submit the required paperwork for the petition process as early as possible ahead of the November 15 timely deadline. Thereafter, late fees accrue up until the January 15 cut-off date for petitions to be considered for this examination (no exceptions and no time extensions).

* Bar Application (including Section D), Supplement to Registrant Bar Application (including the Re-Examination/Conversion Application), or Re-Examination Application

Detailed information, forms, and instructions are available on this website.

Let's look first at the application process. Three separate exam-related issues are deadline driven: 1) entrance to the exam; 2) participation in the laptop program; and 3) petitions for test accommodations. The specific dates are detailed on this slide for your reference. Note that these are firm deadlines.

1) Everyone is required to submit a Bar Application, or Supplement to Registrant Bar Application if you previously filed as a law student, as well as the Examination Application in order to be issued a ticket into the examination. If you later wish to apply for a subsequent examination, you must submit a Re-Examination application each and every time you wish to take the bar examination.

2) Everyone electing to use his or her personal laptop computer for the essay portion of the bar examination must pay the $125 laptop fee. You must also register and qualify the computer you will use for the examination. This must be done through the ExamSoft website during the timeframe established. There are no exceptions to the registration and qualification time frame, nor any refunds of the laptop fee.

3) Any applicant seeking test accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) is encouraged to submit the required documentation for petition as early as possible. Some of the forms must be completed by outside sources, so an early start is recommended. Petitions received after the cut-off date will not be considered for that administration of the bar examination. Detailed information, forms, and filing instructions are available on this website.

Examination Site

Examination Dates:
Tuesday & Wednesday,
February 21-22, 2017

Examination Site:
Tampa Convention Center,
Downtown - Tampa, Florida

Hotel Information:
Available on this website
under FAQs for the bar examination

Transportation & Parking:

sure to inquire about shuttle service and walking distance to the Tampa Convention Center.

The bar examination will be held on the last consecutive Tuesday and Wednesday in the months of February and July at the Tampa Convention Center in downtown Tampa.

Hotel information is available on the board's website under the FAQs for the bar examination. You are responsible for your own transportation, parking, hotel accommodations, and meals. Your early attention to these necessary details is encouraged, particularly with regard to hotel reservations.

Because downtown traffic and parking can be unpredictable, be sure when considering area hotels to inquire about the hotel's proximity to the Tampa Convention Center -- whether it is within walking distance, or if the hotel will be providing shuttle service on the mornings of the bar examination.

Tampa Convention Center – 1st Floor or Lower Level Applicant Storage Rooms & Badge Pick-Up

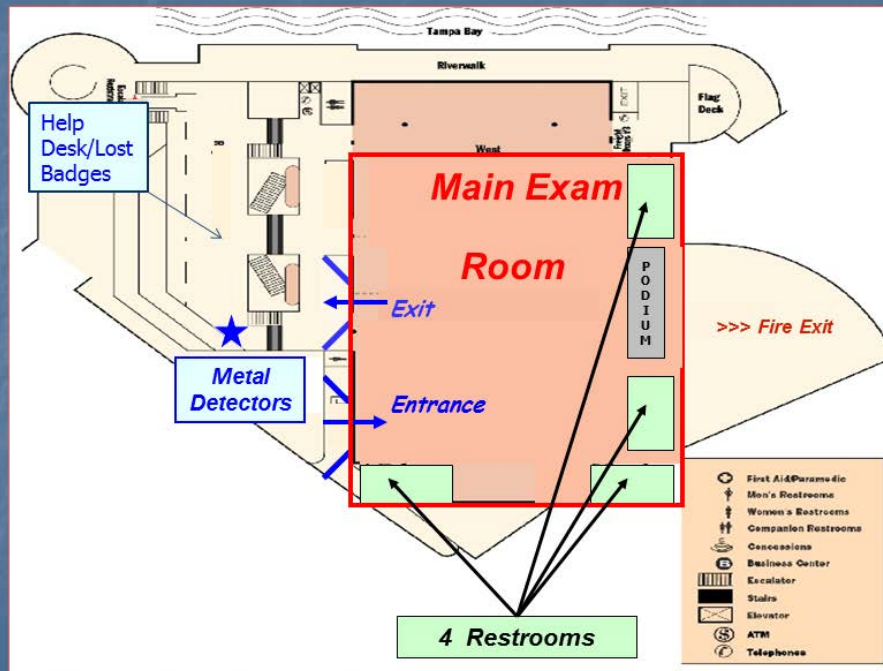

You may find it helpful to familiarize yourself with the layout of the Tampa Convention Center prior to your arrival.

This diagram of the test site depicts the Lower Level, or 1st floor, of the Tampa Convention Center, where the Applicant Storage Rooms are located.

On Tuesday morning, badge distribution takes place at Ballroom C on this Lower Level as well. Applicants receiving test accommodations will be advised by letter where to retrieve the photo badge when accommodations are granted.

On Wednesday morning, for applicants taking Part B, only, badges can be obtained outside of Ballroom C.

Tampa Convention Center – 2nd Floor & Mezzanine (Upper Level & Main Floor)

Please note that pencils and pens will be provided for you. Extra blank pages are provided in the essay test booklets for you to use as scratch paper. You are also free to write in your multiple-choice test booklets; however, your answers must be marked on the answer sheets provided.

- The bags must be placed on the floor under your desk in the examination room.

All permitted items (photo identification, money, key, etc.) described in the prior slide should be placed in a clear, plastic, sealable, quart-sized bag for ease of inspection at the metal detectors. Your pockets should be completely empty when you proceed through the metal detectors. Your preparation and compliance with this rule will greatly assist the staff in getting all applicants into the examination room in an efficient manner and allow for the examination to begin on time.

File Number and NCBE Number

- You will not need your file number during the examination.
- Your NCBE number will be provided to you.
- The password for laptop participants to launch ExamSoft's software will be provided on your exam booklet.
- Do not bring board correspondence, e-mails, or any other notes regarding these numbers or password.

You will receive an examination/badge number at the examination site that you will use to identify yourself. This unique number is assigned to you for one examination, only. You do not need your file number with the board for any aspect of the examination.

The National Conference of Bar Examiners now requires that applicants fill in their NCBE number on the MBE answer sheets. This number will be on your desk position card at your table. There is no need to bring anything with you to remind yourself of this number.

The password to launch SofTest will be on your test booklets. This information is not contained in any e-mail received from the board's office. Please do not bring copies of e-mails to the examination site.

Sample of Items NOT Permitted in the Examination Room

(must be stored in the Applicant Storage Area)

NO ... book bags, eyeglass cases, backpacks, purses, wallets, notes, books, study materials, cell phones, watches or other time keeping devices, calculators, computers, or other electronic devices

NO ... highlighter markers, pencils, pens, headphones, earplugs with wires, diskettes or CDs, USB keys, wireless keyboard, wireless mouse, hats or baseball caps, food or liquids

It is critical that you understand what items are not permitted in the examination room. Materials will be confiscated from anyone found in violation of this rule, and the incident will be reported to the board's investigative staff and reviewed. That investigative process may delay admission.

No head gear may be worn (including hoods on sweatshirts), with the exception of religious apparel provided it does not contain a brim or otherwise obscure the view of the applicant's facial features.

Be aware, too, that the Tampa Convention Center prohibits bringing outside food and beverages into the facility (with the exception of a medical necessity that has been pre-authorized through the Florida Board of Bar Examiners). Food vendors within the Convention Center will be open and available to you during the lunch.

Notice

- Wristwatches and other, similar timekeeping devices are not permitted in the examination room. Please do not bring these items to the examination site. Clocks are located in the examination room.

Applicants will not be permitted to bring wristwatches, other, similar timekeeping devices (i.e., Activity/Fitness Trackers) or clocks of any type into the examination room. Wristwatches should not be worn or brought to the examination site.

There will be clocks in the examination room that initially display the time and, once the examination begins, will display the amount of time remaining during each testing session.

Policy

- Any applicant found with a cell phone or other prohibited electronic device after the start of the examination will be removed from the examination room and the examination will not be graded.

In its efforts to ensure a secure and fair examination, the board has adopted a policy wherein any applicant who is found to have a cell phone or other prohibited electronic device on their person after the examination begins will be immediately expelled from the examination.

As will be discussed shortly, each applicant is required to sign the ticket of admission, a portion of which is a pledge not to bring any prohibited devices into the examination room. Signs will be displayed outside of the examination room reminding you that cell phones are not permitted. If you find that you have brought your cell phone to the examination site, you must store it in the designated storage room.

Examination Day – Arrive by 7:45 a.m.

Arrive by 7:45
a.m.

Store any personal belongings.

Collect your photo badge.

Proceed to the metal detectors.

Enter exam room and locate seat.

You will have a number of tasks to accomplish on the morning of the examination prior to the start of the test. Many other applicants will be focused on these same tasks, so there is the expected hustle and bustle of a crowded public environment. It is to your advantage to arrive by the designated time, and to know where to go and what to do, to ensure you are settled prior to the start of test instructions.

When you arrive at the Tampa Convention Center, you should go first to the Lower Level to store any personal belongings, and to pick up your photo ID badge.

Store Any Personal Belongings

Location:

Rooms 24 & 25
Lower Level

Cost:

No charge

Hours of Operation:

7:00 am – 6:00 p.m.

You are encouraged not to bring any personal items to the bar examination; leave your cell phones, wallets, etc. at home or in your hotel room. If you arrive at the examination site with a prohibited item, you will have to store it in your car, back at your hotel room, or in the storage room; neither the board nor its agents will take possession of a prohibited item in order to store it on your behalf. While it is permitted to store items such as wallets, cell phones, and wristwatches in the storage room, you are strongly cautioned against doing so. The storage room is not locked during the day, nor is security provided for the room. Neither the Florida Board of Bar Examiners nor the Tampa Convention Center is responsible for the items left in this room or in any other area in the convention center.

The storage room is intended for items such as laptop carrying cases needed to transport your laptop computer to the examination site. There is no cost to store your personal items. Hours of operation are from 7:00 am to 6:00 pm. The storage area will be accessible to you during the lunch break.

The board is aware that on occasion applicants are faced with inclement weather on one or both days of the examination. The board has arranged with the Tampa Convention Center to provide a complimentary storage area for umbrellas outside of Rooms 24 and 25. Please note, however, that security will not be provided for items left in this area.

Signed: Joe Smith

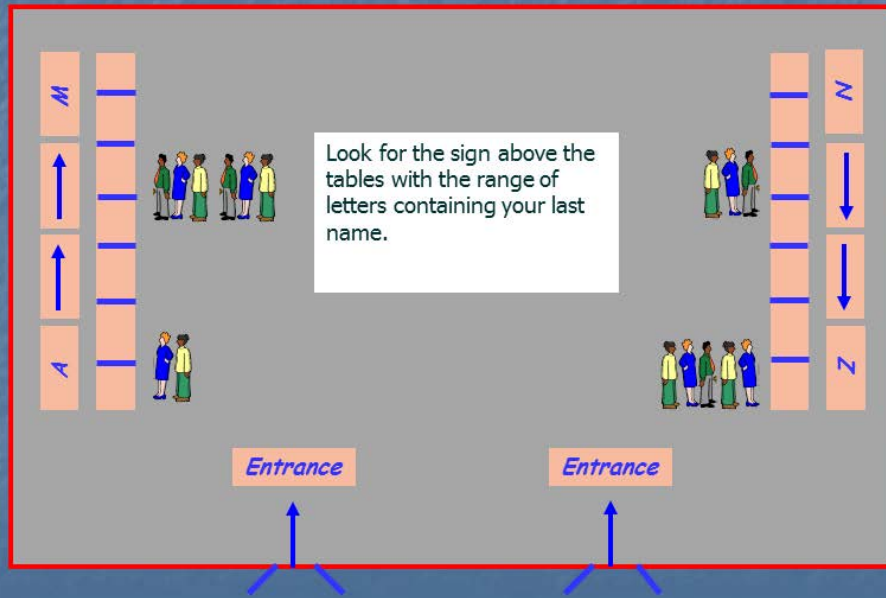

When you arrive, and once you have stored any personal belongings, present your signed ticket and a proper photo ID (driver's license or other government issued picture ID) at the registration stations set-up on the Lower Level in Ballroom C. You MUST have, at least, a proper photo ID to receive your photo badge. If you did not bring your ticket, you will be required to sign a blank one at the registration station.

Make a point to sign your exam ticket before you reach the table, as this will help speed the process. Your signature on the ticket is your pledge that you will comply with security restrictions in place at the testing site.

Badge Distribution - Ballroom C

At each registration station, the tables will display large signs dividing applicants' names alphabetically. The lines can get long, so be sure you are at the right station and at the right table alphabetically to pick up your badge.

Responsibility for Your Photo Badge

Display your photo badge at all times while at the testing site: on the front corner of your table during testing, and on your lapel or collar when away from your seat (i.e., restroom, lunch, metal detectors, etc.).

Take your photo badge with you at the end of the day IF you will be returning for another day of testing. This is your entry to the next testing session. On your final day of testing, leave your photo badge on your table when you have completed all testing.

When you have received your photo badge, clip it to your shirt pocket or collar so that it is prominently displayed, then proceed up the escalators to the Mezzanine Level for security clearance through the metal detectors. You must have a photo badge for security clearance and to enter the examination room.

Take your photo badge with you at the lunch break and at the end of the testing day IF you will be returning for another day of testing. If it is your last day of testing, leave your photo badge on your desk at the end of the day.

If you misplace your badge, go to the help desk on the Mezzanine Level prior to getting in line at the metal detectors for the next session; you will not be allowed to re-enter the examination room without your badge.

Proceed to the Metal Detectors

- Present your photo badge at the metal detectors.
- Follow instructions of personnel operating that checkpoint.
- All permitted items should be in a clear plastic, sealable bag.
- Pockets should be empty.
- Laptop users are permitted only:
  - laptop
  - power cord
  - battery
  - keyboard (non-wireless)
  - mouse (non-wireless)
  - 6'-8' extension cord
  - no carry cases, CDs, diskettes, or USB keys

Present your photo badge at the metal detectors and follow the instructions of the personnel operating that checkpoint. You must place all items other than your photo badge on the tables provided in a clear plastic bag. Remember, your pockets should be empty at this point.

Applicants using laptops are restricted to the items listed on this slide. Carrying cases must be stored in the storage area provided on the lower level prior to entering the metal detector lines. Please also make sure to remove any CDs and DVDs from your computer before arriving at the examination site. CDs or DVDs confiscated at the metal detectors or by the board's staff at any time may not be returned.

Once you have been cleared, proceed up the steps to the upper level where the main examination room is located. You may enter the examination room when the doors are opened. Once you are inside the examination room, you will need to locate your seat. Your badge number is your seat number.

Inside the Examination Room

- Row Signs – The range of seat numbers in each row is posted at the end of each row with an arrow indicating which way that row runs (up or down).

- Seating Pattern – Seats run numerically up and down rows in a snaking pattern starting at the left, front corner of the room.

Inside the examination room, there are row signs posted that list the range of seat numbers for each row. This will help you determine the row in which your seat number falls. The arrow is your indication of whether the numbers run up or down that particular side of the row.

Row Signs

You can see that the examination room is quite large, so it will be very helpful to you in finding your seat to understand the signs. There will also be monitors circulating to assist you in finding your seat, if necessary.

Once you have located your seat, please remain at your desk and familiarize yourself with the information and directions at your desk.

Locating Your Seat

- Your badge number is your seat number.
- Your badge number and your name appear on the Desk Position Card placed at your assigned seat.
- Do not remove your Desk Position Card from your desk at any time.

Part A	Smith, Tom	Part B

LEAVE AT DESK POSITION
PLEDGE
On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid, directly or indirectly, on the General Bar Examination. I have not observed anyone else give or receive unauthorized aid on this Examination.
Signature: _____
Date: _____

When you have located the seat bearing your badge number, you will find a desk position card with your name and badge number printed on it. Leave it on your desk at all times. Removal of your desk position card will result in your not receiving a test book for the next session.

Display your photo badge prominently on the corner of your desk. Read the instruction sheet provided at your desk position, but do not open the test booklet until the announcement from the podium to begin the examination.

Applicants Using Laptops

- Find your seat promptly.
- Set-up and boot-up your computer.
- Read and follow the ExamSoft instructions at your desk position.
- Proceed to the STOP sign on your screen in the ExamSoft program, and await further instructions from the podium.

- Before the examination starts, ExamSoft site engineers will be stationed on either side of the podium, in the front of the room, for technical assistance.
- During the exam, raise two fingers to signal an ExamSoft site engineer for any technical issues.
- If your computer fails, begin hand writing your answers. Monitors will be circulating with extra blue books and pens.
- You are required to leave your laptop at your desk during the lunch break and afternoon session.

Applicants using laptops should begin setting up their computers as soon as they have located their assigned seats; that area will have electrical outlets installed for laptop use. Once the laptop is set up, applicants should then read and follow the instructions at their desk position.

ExamSoft engineers will be stationed in the examination room to assist with technical issues, and can be signaled during the examination by raising two fingers as depicted here. If you experience computer problems, be prepared to begin hand writing your answers immediately. Again, do not open any test booklets until the announcement from the podium to begin the examination.

You are required to leave your laptop computer at your desk during lunch and until the end of the first day of testing. This will limit disturbances while the examination is ongoing. Security is provided during lunch time in the examination room.

Prior to the Start of Each Examination Session

- Before each examination session begins, fingerprints will be collected from all applicants to ensure the identity of all individuals taking the examination.

One of the security measures taken at the examination site to ensure a secure and fair examination is that fingerprints are collected from all applicants prior to the start of the each session of the examination, in order to confirm the identities of all examinees. If any set of fingerprints collected from you are not sufficient for this purpose, you may be asked to be re-printed.

During the Examination

- Video surveillance will be in use.
- Monitors, proctors, and administrators circulate throughout each testing session.
- Once you have entered the examination room, use restrooms inside the examination room.
- If you finish the session early, turn in your papers outside the examination room door.
- During the last 15 minutes of each testing session, you must remain in your seat. No one is permitted to visit the restrooms or leave the examination room until time is called and all papers are collected.

Remember that you will not be permitted to re-enter the examination room if you exit for any reason. Be sure to use restrooms inside the examination room, if you plan to go back to continue with your examination. For applicants finishing the test session early, test papers should be turned in outside the examination room door.

Please be aware that the last 15 minutes of each testing session is restricted in that no one is allowed to leave their seats for any reason. If you finish your examination during the last 15 minutes, you must remain seated until time is called and all papers are collected.

Restrooms Inside the Examination Room

There are restrooms and water fountains inside the examination room located as follows:

- Front of room on either side of podium

- Side of room, close to the front

- Side of room, close to the back

Applicants are required to sign in and out to use the restrooms during the examination.

Restrooms are closed during the last 15 minutes of each test session.

Restrooms and water fountains are located inside the examination room at the front and at the side of the room as indicated on this slide.

If you go to the restroom or water fountain during the testing session, remember to use those located inside the examination room. You will take your photo badge and test materials with you to the proctor table at the restroom entrance; then, retrieve your photo badge and test materials when you exit the restroom, verify that you have picked up your badge and materials, and return to your seat. Proctors are assigned to these locations to ensure that test materials are properly handled, and that no talking takes place by anyone using the facilities.

Announcement to “STOP”

- Countdown clocks are located throughout the examination room, and announcements are made toward the end of each testing session: “15 minutes remaining,” “5 minutes remaining,” and “1 minute remaining.”
- When the announcement to “STOP” is given, stop typing, stop writing, and put your pencil or pen down. No further marks or erasures of any kind are permitted once time has been called.
- Monitors, proctors, and administrators will be circulating to strictly enforce this rule. Violations, regardless of severity or intent, will be thoroughly investigated.

There are multiple large countdown clocks easily visible throughout the examination room. As the test session draws to a close, the time remaining will be announced from the podium at 15 minutes, 5 minutes, and 1 minute remaining.

When you hear the announcement to STOP, put your pen or pencil down. Do not continue to write, type, or make any marks or erasures; any activity at all after the instruction to put pens and pencils down may be considered an exam rules of conduct violation. Monitors, proctors, and administrators will be circulating throughout the room to strictly enforce this rule.

Examination Rules of Conduct

- Under rule 4-51 of the Rules of the Supreme Court Relating to Admissions to the Bar, applicants must abide by all rules governing the administration of the General Bar Examination.
- Applicants must not possess or use any unauthorized items in the examination room without the prior written approval of the board.
- Applicants must not use answers or information from other applicants while taking the examination.
- Applicants must not read questions on the examination prior to the announcement to begin the examination and must not continue to answer any questions after the announcement to stop because the session has ended.
- Applicants must not remove any multiple-choice, machine-scored examination questions from the examination room or otherwise communicate the substance of any of those questions to persons who are employed by or associated with bar review courses.

Many of the previous slides in the virtual tour represent actual rules from the Rules of the Supreme Court Relating to Admissions to the Bar. The consequences for failing to adhere to the Rules of Conduct can be severe. Under rule 4-62.1, if an applicant is suspected of violating the Rules of Conduct, the Court may impound the examination results. Under rule 4-65.2, if an applicant is found to have violated the Rules of Conduct which results in adverse Findings being filed, the applicant will not be eligible to take another examination for up to five years.

Grades Release

Grades release is scheduled for Monday, April 10, 2017.
On that date:

- Pass/Fail results are posted on the Supreme Court's website:
<http://www.floridasupremecourt.org/barscores/index.shtml>
- Individual scores are mailed to applicants.

Be sure your current address is on file in the board's office,
and make 3 important notes for yourself:

1. The scheduled date for grades release;
2. The Supreme Court's website; and
3. Your file number, which is necessary to access your pass/fail result.

Make note of the scheduled date for grades release for this bar examination, which is shown on this slide. On that date, pass/fail results will be posted on the Internet, and individual scores will be mailed through the U.S. postal service to the address you have on file with the board's office on that date. Examination results are not available over the phone from either the board's office or the Supreme Court.

It is important to maintain an updated mailing address with the board at all times, and particularly to ensure the timely receipt of your examination scores. It is also important that you have your file number to access your results on the internet the day of grades release. Your file number is referenced on all board correspondence to you. It is also on your ticket of admission.

Be aware that you will not be able to obtain your file number by calling the board's office, as that information cannot be given out over the telephone for confidentiality reasons. Without your file number, you will be unable to access your results on the Internet, and you will have to await notification of your results by mail.

We want everything to go smoothly for you on exam day and we work extremely hard to plan for as many contingencies as possible. Your diligent preparation and planning for the administration of the examination will go a long way to making it a smooth testing experience.

We are very proud to have an experienced staff that attend the bar examination regularly. Many have administered more than twenty examinations. It is our goal to administer the examination in a secure environment (both in terms of safety and test integrity), and in a manner that is fair to all applicants as well as efficient in process.

The board and staff assert our commitment to you in providing a secure, fair, and efficient bar examination. It is our hope that the information presented in this virtual tour will be helpful to you in preparing for this important milestone in your career.
